[s. 14]

PART IV

STUDENT DISCIPLINE (ss 17-27)

[PCh321s17]17. Interpretation relating to Part IV

In this Part, unless the context otherwise requires—

"disciplinary authority" means the Registrar exercising the powers conferred upon him by section 19 and includes any person to whom such powers have been delegated in accordance with section 20;

"disciplinary offence" means the contravention of any by-laws made under section 18.

[s. 15]

[PCh321s18]18. Power of Academic Board to make by-laws

(1) The Academic Board may make by-laws designed to secure the maintenance of discipline amongst the students.

(2) By-laws made under subsection (1) may provide that the contravention of any of the by-laws shall constitute a disciplinary offence and may further provide for the punishment that may be imposed for such a disciplinary offence.

(3) It shall not be necessary for the by-laws made under this section to be published in the Gazette but every such by-law shall be brought to the notice of the students in such manner as the Academic Board may determine.

[PCh321s19]19. Registrar to be disciplinary authority

Every charge of a disciplinary offence against a student shall be investigated by the Registrar who shall impose such punishment as he may consider appropriate after inquiring into the offence in accordance with the procedure prescribed by section 23 and upon being satisfied that the charge against the student has been proved.

[s. 17]

[PCh321s20]20. Delegation of powers of Registrar

The Registrar may, by writing under his hand, delegate, subject to such limitations as he may prescribe, all or any of the powers vested in him by section 21 to the Dean of Students, a Dean or a Director.

[s. 18]

[PCh321s21]21. Procedure in disciplinary proceedings

(1) Disciplinary proceedings under this Part may be either formal or summary.

(2) Formal proceedings shall be instituted where, in the opinion of the disciplinary authority, the disciplinary offence which the student is alleged to have committed is of such gravity that should he be found guilty, it may warrant his dismissal or rustication from the College.

(3) Summary proceedings may be instituted where, in the opinion of the disciplinary authority, the disciplinary offence which the student is alleged to have committed is of such gravity that should he be found guilty of it, it may not warrant his dismissal or justification from the College.

(4) Notwithstanding the nature of the procedure intended to be adopted by the disciplinary authority, no disciplinary proceedings shall be instituted against any student after the expiration of thirty days from the date of the commission of an offence or, in the case of a continuing injury or damage, within fifteen days next after its cessation:

Provided that under exceptional circumstances the above mentioned period need not be considered.

[s. 19]

[PCh321s22]22. Cases of formal proceedings

(1) No formal proceedings for a disciplinary offence shall be instituted against a student unless he is previously served with a copy of the charge setting out the nature of the offence which he is alleged to have committed; and the charge shall be prepared by the disciplinary authority after carrying out such preliminary investigations as he may consider necessary and the charge shall state briefly the nature of the offence which the student is alleged to have committed and shall set out in concise form the allegations made against the accused student.

(2) The charge as drawn up shall then be served on the student, together with a notice addressed to him, requiring him to make a representation to in writing, within such period as may be specified in the notice, the grounds upon which he relies to exculpate himself.

(3) Where the accused student fails or refuses to make any representation in writing giving grounds upon which he relies to exculpate himself within the period prescribed in the notice, or makes representations which in the opinion of the disciplinary authority do not amount to a complete defence of the offence charged, the disciplinary authority shall appoint an inquiry officer, to hold an inquiry into the charge.

(4) The Inquiry Officer shall notify the accused student of the day, date, time and place fixed for the holding of the inquiry.

(5) The student shall have a right to appear before the Inquiry Officer, examine witnesses and be heard in his own defence; save that failure by the accused student to appear at the Inquiry shall not vitiate the proceedings.

(6) The accused student shall have a right—

(a) to cross-examine any witness examined by the Inquiry Officer or by the disciplinary authority or his representative;

(b) to examine and make copies of any document produced as evidence against him;

(c) to call witnesses of his own behalf and produce any document relevant to the inquiry.

(7) The Inquiry Officer may take into consideration any evidence which he considers relevant to the subject of the inquiry before him, notwithstanding that such evidence would not be admissible under the law relating to evidence; and shall record the gist of the evidence adduced before him.

(8) Upon the conclusion of the inquiry, the Inquiry Officer shall forward the record of proceedings, together with his report on the proceedings to the disciplinary authority.

(9) A report under subsection (8) shall—

(a) state whether in the opinion of the Inquiry Officer the charge against the accused student has been proved;

(b) state the reason or reasons for holding that opinion;

(c) state any fact which, in the opinion of the Inquiry Officer, aggravates or mitigates the gravity of the act or admission, and the form or nature of the punishment to be awarded.

(10) Upon receipt of the record of proceedings and the report, the disciplinary authority shall, after considering the evidence and the report of the Inquiry Officer, make and recommend a finding whether or not, in its opinion, the student is guilty of the disciplinary offence with which he was charged.

(11) Where the findings of the disciplinary authority is contrary to the opinion which the Inquiry Officer has expressed in his report, the disciplinary authority shall record its reasons for the finding.

(12) Where the disciplinary authority finds the student guilty, it shall proceed to award the punishment prescribed by the by-laws in respect of the disciplinary offence or such lesser punishment as it may deem appropriate.

(13) The inquiry proceedings shall not be open to the public.

[s. 20]

[PCh321s23]23. Cases of summary proceedings

(1) Where the disciplinary authority decides to institute summary proceedings against the student. The disciplinary authority shall cause a statement giving particulars of the charge or charges to be prepared and served upon the student.

(2) The disciplinary authority shall appoint the day, the date, time and place for the investigation of the charge or charges and shall give the student notice of the same.

(3) The investigation of the charge or charges shall be carried out in such manner as the disciplinary authority may determine and the student shall have a right to appear at the investigation and make his defence; but failure or refusal by him to attend the investigation shall not vitiate proceedings.

(4) Where at any stage of the proceedings before a finding is made, it appears to the disciplinary authority from the nature of the facts and the circumstances disclosed that it is necessary or desirable that the matter be dealt with by way of formal proceedings, the disciplinary authority may terminate the summary proceedings and institute formal proceedings in accordance with section 22.

(5) Upon the conclusion of the investigation the disciplinary authority shall make a finding whether or not, in its opinion, the student is guilty of the disciplinary offence or offences with which he is charged, and if it finds the accused student guilty, the disciplinary authority shall proceed to award such punishment as it may consider appropriate; save that under no circumstances shall, on investigation under this section, the student be punished by dismissal or rustication from the College.

[s. 21]

[PCh321s24]24. Disciplinary Appeals Committee Act No. 8 of 2000 s. 10A

(1) There is hereby established a Committee to be known as the Disciplinary Appeals Committee of the College.

(2) The Disciplinary Appeals committee shall be composed of–

(a) a Chairman who shall be appointed by the Vice-Chancellor of the University preferably from outside the College;

(b) five members elected by the Academic Board from amongst its members, two of whom shall be members elected to the Academic Board by the Student Organisation;

(c) a legally qualified person holding office in the Attorney-General's Chambers nominated in that behalf by the Attorney-General.

(3) The quorum for the meetings of the Disciplinary Appeals Committee shall be the Chairman and three other members.

[s. 22]

[PCh321s25]25. Appeals

(1) Where a student has been punished for any disciplinary offence and he wishes to appeal, he may, while carrying out the punishment, appeal to the Disciplinary Appeals Committee within thirty days of the decision of the disciplinary authority.

(2) Where a student wishes to appeal pursuant to subsection (1), he shall, within thirty days of the decision of the disciplinary authority, give a written notice of his intention to appeal to the disciplinary authority who shall forthwith submit it to the Chairman of the Disciplinary Appeals Committee.

(3) On every appeal under this section the student appealing and the disciplinary authority shall both have a right to appear before and be heard by the Disciplinary Appeals Committee.

(4) On an appeal under this section, the Disciplinary Appeals Committee may—

(a) set aside the findings made against the student and the punishment imposed upon him;

(b) uphold the finding and the punishment imposed; or

(c) uphold the finding and reduce or enhance the punishment imposed upon the student.

(5) Notwithstanding subsection (4)(c), where the investigation of the offence by the disciplinary authority was conducted in accordance with the summary procedure prescribed by section 23, the Disciplinary Appeals Committee shall either enhance the punishment to dismissal or rustication from the College.

[s. 23]

[PCh321s26]26. Disciplinary offences not criminal offences

For the purposes of section 48 of the Interpretation Act *, disciplinary offences under this Act, shall be deemed not to be offences created by or under any written law.

[s. 24]

[PCh321s27]27. Decisions not subject to review

Subject to the provision of section 25 relating to appeals to Disciplinary Appeals Committee, no decision of any Inquiry Officer, the Disciplinary Committee shall be subject to review by any court.
